

FACILITATING INTERNATIONAL BENCHMARKING VISITS

The Senate Liaison Office (SLO) serves as the main coordination department for international delegations and institutions seeking benchmarking opportunities with the Senate of Kenya.

The office ensures thorough planning and communication to support a productive and successful engagement.

Our Core Functions

- Managing Benchmarking Requests
- Receiving and processing requests from international delegations.
- Liaising with relevant Senate Directorates and Departments.
- Scheduling and confirming benchmarking visits.
- Planning and preparing official communication, logistics notes, and study visit programs.
- Coordinating with key departments: security, protocol, transport, catering, and public communications.

Facilitating Study Visits

- Organizing meetings and interactions with relevant Senate Directorates.
- Arranging guided tours of Parliament and access to the Speaker's gallery.
- Supporting practical study visits and county - level benchmarking activities.
- Liaison with Stakeholders: Working closely with embassies, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and other institutions.
- Ensuring proper protocol, security, and smooth facilitation for guests.
- Feedback & Continuous Improvement: Gathering feedback from delegations to enhance future benchmarking experiences.
- Value of International Benchmarking Visits
- Exposure to parliamentary practices, procedures and institutional models from other jurisdictions.
- Opportunities for knowledge exchange and learning from international parliamentary institutions.
- Opportunities to engage with Senators, parliamentary officials and relevant institutions to exchange experiences and best practices.
- Opportunities to establish and strengthen professional and institutional networks with international counterparts.
