

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION TO THE SENATE

.....
Your views matter. Your voice counts.

What Is Public Participation?

Public participation gives citizens and stakeholders an opportunity to share their views, concerns and recommendations on decisions, laws, policies and other matters that affect them.

It is a constitutional right under Article 118 of the Constitution, and requires Parliament to facilitate public participation and involvement in its legislative and other business.

How Can You Participate?

- Submit a written memorandum
- Attend a Committee public hearing
- Give your views on a Bill or petition
- Engage with your Senator

How to Submit a Memorandum

1. Find the Bill or Matter

Read the Bill and check the Senate's public-participation notice.

2. Share Your Views

Identify the issue or clause, explain your concern and state what you propose to change and why.

3. Submit on Time

Follow the deadline and submission instructions in the public-participation notice.

Where Can You Submit?

Email: clerk.senate@parliament.go.ke

Hand delivery: Office of the Clerk of the Senate, Main Parliament Buildings, Nairobi

Post: P.O. Box 41842-00100, Nairobi

Note: The public-participation notice for each Bill or matter may provide a specific committee email address and deadline. Always check the notice before submitting.

What Should Your Memorandum Include?

1. Title of the Bill/matter
2. Name of person or organisation submitting
3. Introduction/background
4. Your position: Support / Oppose / Amend
5. Specific clauses/issues to be amended
6. Reasons and evidence for the proposed amendment
7. Recommended amendments/actions
8. Conclusion
9. Name and contact details

Important: If you are representing a community or organization, say so clearly and explain the basis on which you represent them.

BE HEARD. BE INFORMED. PARTICIPATE.
