

VOLUNTARY SERVICE SCHEME/HIGH SCHOOL ATTACHMENT PROGRAM

The Senate Liaison Office coordinates the Voluntary Service Scheme / High School Attachment Program, giving students a structured opportunity to learn, observe, and gain practical exposure within the Senate of Kenya.

What We Do

We facilitate short-term (2 weeks) attachments for high school students, enabling them to:

- Understand the roles and functions of the Senate
- Interact with Senators and key departments
- Gain practical experience in parliamentary processes and governance
- Tour Parliament buildings and observe live proceedings in both chambers
- Participate in mentorship sessions and courtesy calls with senior officials

VSS Program Structure

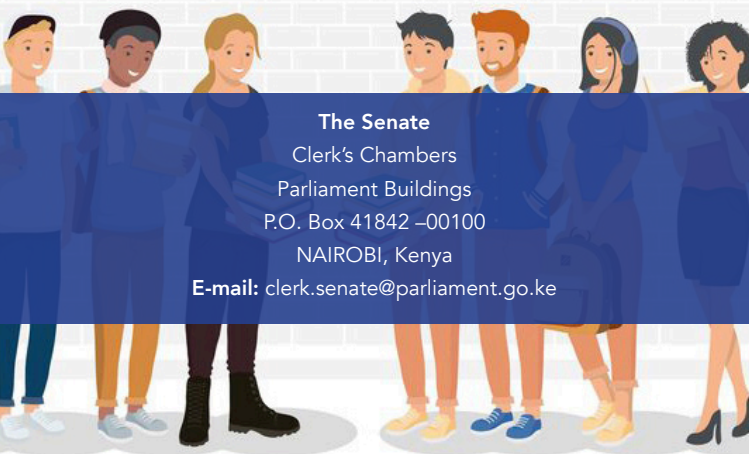

- Schools wishing to participate in the program send an official request letter to the Senate through the office of the Clerk of the Senate.
- Students are attached to different Senate Directorates and Departments.
- Engaging learning programs are designed with intentional placements for a broad exposure to the legislative environment.
- The program includes interactive sessions, educational tours, and mid-program reviews.
- The program includes an official closing session with an opportunity to share experiences and give feedback on the program.

VSS Impact

- Enhances students' understanding of legislation, democracy and devolved governance
- Builds career awareness and parliamentary exposure
- Fosters leadership, discipline, and civic responsibility

Who can Apply

- All public and private high school students are eligible to undertake the program.
